

Disability Income Rider Occupation Guide

For Agent Use Only

Disability Income Underwriting Guidelines

Applicant must be actively employed at least 30 hours a week to qualify for the Disability Income Rider. Seasonal workers are not eligible for coverage. Applicants who operate a business in their home are usually not eligible for coverage unless at least 50% of their job duties are performed away from the home.

- The issue limit is the lesser of:
 - a) $3000 of monthly benefit or
 - b) $66^{2}/_{3}$ of earned income or
 - c) 1% of the life insurance amount
- Please indicate on the application all in force disability coverage, both group and individual.
- Disability coverage will be offset by any other individual disability policies, both individual and group coverage.
- For Federal, State, County, City, Railroad, and Post Office employees, the issue limit is the lesser of:
 - a) 15% of income for singles
 - b) 20% of income for married
- Issue Ages:
 - 18 55 on term policies
 - 15 55 on UL policies
- Rider can be included only at issue.
- Two choices of benefits are available (depending on product).
 - a) Three-month elimination period with two year benefit
 - b) Six-month elimination period with five year benefit
- The base insured doesn't need to apply for Waiver of Premium to have the Disability Rider, except on the Term Trends policy.
- The Disability Rider will be omitted if rating on life coverage is higher than Table C (175%). There are some impairments that are insurable for life coverage that may be declined for disability coverage.
- Use Disability Income Rider Occupation Guide to determine occupation class.
 - a) Class 1 Professional, technical and managerial occupations, office duty only
 - b) Class 2 Supervisory and other skilled clerical and technical people
 - c) Class 3 Non-hazardous light manual workers
 - d) Class 4 Hazardous work with heavy manual labor or using heavy equipment
- Maximum participation limit is $10,000 monthly benefit from all disability sources.
